Amnsements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC 2 and S-The Old Homestead.

BLIOU OPERA HOUSE-2 and S-Woman Hater.

BRIGHTON BEACH-3:30 and 7:30 Auton Seldi Concerts. DADWAY THEATRE-2 and S-The Queen's Mate. CASIN - 2 and, -Nadis Dockstan & s-2 and 8- Minstrels, FDEN MUSEL-Wax Tableaux.

GRAND OPERS HOUSE-2 and S-A Dark Secret.
HARRIGAN'S PARK THE STEE: 2 and S-Waddy Geogan.
LYCLUM THEATRE-2 and S:15-Lord Chumley. MADISON-AVE. AND SOTH-ST. Day and Evening—
Jerusalem and the Cracitation.

MADISON SOURCE THEATRE—2 and 8:30—A Legal Wreek.

MANIATTAN BERGUE—8-Fire of London.

SIMON-2 and 8. Weekley Standon.

NIBLO'S-2 and S-Vathins Sandorf.

STAR THEATRE-2 and S-Robert Downing.

ST. GEORGE-S-Nero, or The Fall of Rome. Terrace Garden-8-Opera Wallack's-2 and 8:15-Beccacie, 5th Avesur, Theatre-2 and 8-Philip Herne, 14th-st. Theatre-2 and 8-Gwynne's Oath.

OTH-AVE, AND 19TR-ST. -Gettysourg.

Index to Advertisements.

Dave.	Col	Page.	Col
EAST.		Marriages and Deaths 7
Ammsements	- 17		200
Appennements 10		Miscelianeous10	477
Autumn Reserts	- 3	Miscellaneous 9	- 23
Pankers and Brokers 9	135	New Publication 8	- 12
		Ocean Steamers 5	4
Board and Rooms 9		Propos le 9	7.6
Business Chances 8			75.0
Business Notice 6		Battroads	200
Cepartnership Notice 0		Meal Estate	441
Country Beard 9	- 28	Religious Notices 5	900
Dividend Notices 1	4	Bronis and Flats 2	- 03
European Advis 9		Special Notices 7
	- 2	SHUALIODS WELLICO 5	- 2
Excursions
Financia:		Steamients	- 82
Hetele 9	10.25	Teneners	32
Instruction 8	2.6	The fuctors !	- 65
Law Sensols 8		Water Resorts 9	- 2
	1.7	DATE OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE PAR
Legal Notices 3	- 90	The second state of the second second Business Nonces.

Oppice Full Nipulation of T. S. Sklass.
11 Faltonet, New York.
Desks, Library Tables, &c.

TRIBUNE TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBURS. by Postal Order, Express Order, Check, Draft or Cash of Postal Note, if sent in an unregistered letter, l be at cwirer a fish Main edice of The Zeibune, 154 Nassaust, New-York lyess all correspondence simply "The Tribune," New-

New-York Daily Tribuna FOUNDED BY HORACE GREELEY

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1888.

TEN PAGES.

THE NEWS THIS MORNING.

Foreign.-The cases of the fugitive bank cashiers

Congress.-Both branches in session. == The | classes: Senate: A message was received from the President, with two disjetches from the Minister to China, declaring that no positive information of the rejection of the treaty had been secrived, an that the treaty had been postpaned for lattle deliberation; the Chinese Exclusion b passed with three negative votes. - The House The Retaliation bill was further discussed by Messrs. Nutting, Cannon, and White for the Republicans, and Hooker for the Administration.

Domestle.-Ex-Senator Warner Miller made speech at Binghamton, — The Republican majority in Vermout was greater than ever before at a State election, === It is reported the President's letter of acceptance will be not public on Sunday night. The Congress River in South Carolina, rose twenty feet in twenty four hours, broke its banks, and did $1,000,00 damage to cotton and corn, Three grave robbers were foiled in an attempt to steal the strongly denouncing the Governor was adopted, and specches were made by prominent Democrats. to see any callers except a few personal friends; follows; his physician unable to say whether or not be BRITISH WAGES IN GLASS WORKS. can go to Newark to-night. - A mysterious fire in East Broadway threatened the lives of a veral people; a young man lowered his mother and two children by a rope from a third-story window. Meetings held to raise money for the yellow fever sufferers in Florida, - Tay steamer New yada, of the Guien Line, which which from this port on Tuesday, broke her main shart at wa, and is being towed back by the Hamburg ship Polaria. ville nine by a acore of 8 to 5. - Stongs opened netive and lower, recovered sharply, and closed

The Weather.-Indications for to-day: Slightly warmer and threatening, with min. 51: average, 58 1-4.

The latest advices from Washington are that this unprecedented incubation a document of see the President attempt another desperate flep. If his September utterance is in accord be cause for asionishment.

form Club, an organization of free-trade Deme- over Eritish wages in those industries from erats, came very near being turned into a Hill about 90 to hearly 120 per cent. It is also behalf of its favorite were nearly as emphatic two remaining industries, in which, conseas the denunciatory display on the other ade. Quently, the difference between British and As for the address to the Democratic State | American wages appears less than it actually Convention which was adopted, its effect to. is, whenever beys or women are in Great Britmains to be seen. Judging from the number | ain considerably employed, of delegates instructed for Hill already shored One other difference the comparison as to it will be buried with little formulity. Its strong, but the State Convention is not taking eighteen years of age, and hoys between thir-

Mr. Cleveland has at length favored the Senknowledge is of the scantiest, and yet while China, and hence the Democrats' baste to seel, coats; in window-glass manufacture-roller the favor of the Pacific Cloud was ill-timed. boys, 70 at 78 cents; in green glass manufact

The Democratic campaign so far has been

not at all surprising to learn that Chairman | lower the American average of wages for men. by Mr. Meaher, of Cleveland, the scheme will probably not be prosecuted much further, Mr. Meaher is a lawyer, and has heretofore been a Democrat. He tells Colonel Brice that this year he is going to vote for Harrison and Pro-Brice has evolved the taking notion that the With these classes only excluded, as in Great lation of the law. But it was none the less a of wages, dignity or independence. year he is going to vote for Harrison and Pro- ures of wages, it will be realized that the actual denouncing the Postmaster's course. "The crats of those days dared to go with it, and narmony, secretics in London on her grandfather's colony at Naw, tection, and that the Republicans will probably carry Ohio by from 25,000 to 50,000. Colonel Brice may as well give up Ohio now as on the Brice may as well give up Ohio now as on the bas shown. Thus it is safe to say that, while Independent paper, joined with the Republican iffs of those days involved but triffing changes morning of November 7.

Senator Blackburn's remarks on Cleveland as a Civil Service reformer well deserve the space they occupy in another column. The Kentucky Senator declares that the President has "purified the Civil Service of this country." He might well have chosen some illustrations of the process of "purification" from it held on Thursday evening, it may well in THE TRIBUNE'S complete and unanswerable bitterness of spirit put to itself the question. reformer, and, at the same time, to get the exposure of the Administration's false pretences on this subject. The Senator preceded to say that he himself believed in Civil Service, and daisy." It had been extensively advertised lines of business. as a model of what a Civil Service reformer ought to be he selected-of all men-Governor | walls. It called to its aid red fire and rockets | Washington dispatches of "The Sun" that Hill! As illustrating his idea of reform, he and a procession and music by the band. Neverremarked that if he had a chance he would theless it was a failure. The chief attraction | Civil Service reform characteristics of Pestturn every bad Republican out of office, and of the evening was the venerable candidate for then he would turn out every good one. We the Vice-Presidency, but owing to an acute have not the least doubt that Mr. Blackburn attack of cholera morbus he was unable to de- Judd for aiding his party. Even should pubexpresses the general Democratic conviction liver more than a few sentences of the speech lie sentiment be too strong to allow Mr. Judd's on this subject. Yet there are men so blind with which he was leaded. Considering his refention, no action is likely to be taken beor so pig-headed as to believe that that party advanced age, Judge Thurman never ought to fore election." can be relied on to furnish real reform. The thistle never yet produced a crop of figs.

WAGES AND THE TARIFF-VIII. The comparisons already given cover the wages of 2.626,136 workers in manufacturing, mechanical and mining occupations out of a ment according to the census of 1880. Nearly 70 per cent of these workers are thus included, besides 900,000 unskilled laborers, or about a third of the number of male wage-earners in personal and professional services. At British of another Democratic newspaper, we should wages these 3,500,000 workers would receive not more than $5.54 per week, but at American wages they do receive at least $10.88 per week; difference, 96.4 per cent. But the full | Hill, of New-York, and Senatar Joseph C. S. difference between wages in this country and Blackburn, of Kentucky, on the list of speakin Great Britain has not yet been disclosed. Nor can it be, because the precise proportion of Pitcher and De Baun were before the courts in men, women, boys and girls, employed at differ-Canada, ==== Three lives were lest in the recent | ent rates of compensation, is not made known. cyclone in Cuba. = The Allan Line steamer | To illustrate, let the glass industry be con-Prussian sank the British steamer Membing in a sidered; the American tables show precisely collision in the Clyde. — Native Africans fired upon German selfiers at Tanga: a German mandifewar then bombarded Tanga. — The French Government has ordered an investigation of the Government has ordered an investigation of the alleged traffic in slaves under the protection of the French flag.

Lowing totals have been computed by separate calculations for the workers in each of 135

WAGES IN GLASS MANUFACTURE.

Wigners.	2,458 2,196 412 5,727			38 380 10
T01406
Wages in Glass	Marr	ts sure-	-036	orient d
	Whatn	Wago	4	Girls:	Wages.
Witdow Great Plate Glassware	13	40		1	$2,00 1::45
Totals,	124	8(0)	.21	25	$11.15
nec.	PITU	LATIO	No.
		Total	31	Cages.	Average
Window Green Pro Gaseware		2,516 2,576 474 8,029	4	602.01 601.28 923.21 4.2.70	$2.63 1.79 1.90 1.83
Totals		13,595	520	619.43	$1,90

Here it appears that 13,595 workers are di-Killing frests were again reported in New-York vid d substantially as follows: Eighty males above sixteen in every 100 workers, 19 males from the heardless world of politics. There he cf our National character to explain that Mr. damage was done. —— The Attorney-General of below sixteen, and one woman or girl in 100, stood the picture of robust health, without a Indiana recommended the use of militia to sup- and that they earn in all $26.61943 daily, so suspicion of cholera morbus in his system, and press the White Caps. - The trial of the mar- that they average $1.96 daily or $11.76 weekderers of Jackson Ballard was continued at Shadis. By for each person. But the males above six- and his seat was not contested, the audience teen average $13.83 weekly, the boys helow sixteen only $3.84, the women $4.32, and the However, the campaign is young yet, and our in the Cooper Institute by Democrats who oppose the Cooper Institute by Democrats who oppose the renomination of Governor Hall; an address girls $3.18. Now the British division at this Democratic friends may do better with their ment's position. The question was one of our tion. time is not precisely known, the latest Parlia- next ratification. We could speak more conmentary paper accessible which gives that in- fidently on this point were it not for the fact Allen G. Thurman pertially recovered from formation being for 1871. But at that time that the Democratic prespects are rapidly grow- on the part of the English Foreign Office. his attack of cholera morbus, but was not allowed the number and the average of wages were as ling as infirm as the old Roman.

	Number	Weekly.	Wages per 100 mands.
Man above 15 Mana 13 to 16 Femilias over 16 Boys betow 13	505.90	21.15	$527.24 56.60 24.30
Tatals	21,424	20,00	8000.14

The division here is about 61 in 100 males above eighteen, 26 in 100 from thirteen to eighteen, and 10 in 100 females or boys, and the last column contains weekly wages for 100 workers thus divided. A little comparison will show that, had the American workers in 1880 been divided as the British were in 1871, but ature yesterday: Highest, 67 degrees: lowest, | paid the same rate of wages for each class that the American workers actually earned in 1880. their average would have been not 81170 weekly, but only $10.28 weekly. Or, if the Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance will be British workers in 1871 had been divided as given to the press on Sunday night. After to age and sex as the American workers were. the average of British wages in 1871 would exceptional force and virility ought to be the have been $6.97 instead of $6.03. Thus a result. The country, however, is prepared to difference of $1 to $150 per week in the average wages in this industry depends upon the employment of more women, boys and with Els December deliverance, it will indeed girls instead of men in Great Britain than are so coupleyed in this country. Allowance was The anti-Hill meeting inspired by the Res. and it changed the apparent excess of American glass works brings to light. All the British official papers include as men only males above ing letter of defence which Mr. Judd wrote to sort. They get knowledge by suffering; and in know whom to trust and whom to distrust. They instructions from the Reform Club this year, teen and eighteen are separately classed. But the American tables all include with men all | with Mr. Phelps as to the methods used in | learn maything about a Democratic tariff exthe male workers sixteen years of age or over. former campaigns for raising money, and when copt by personal experience, they certainly can ate with the information in his pessession re- so that the average for men is relatively low- they were considering whom to select for this have their own way. They have votes enough to be extremely message Minls or Denty's who are not so included in Great Britain. In the glass industry, it is evident, 2,000 or more | made by Mr. Phelps. Afterward it transpired | will work-but they cannot put themselves he had heard enough to form a belief and make of the workers classed as men are from six- that Mr. Phelps induced him to selicit sub- back where they were before they tried the rather a heavy face, but it is not unattractive. Her a demand on the Chinese Government "some icen to eighteen years of age, and earn such scriptions for the Democratic National Com- experiment. The boy who has once slept in days" before, it was not till September 5 that be vouchsafed to tell his own Government -stickers-up, 338 at 87 cents daily; cleaning-out his knowledge or consent, but Mr. Phelps has bought his experience dearly. So the he vouchsafed to tell his own Government -tickers-up, 338 at 87 cents duly; cleaningwhat he had learned. His second dispatch off boys, 192 at 82 cents; carrying-in boys, shows that final action has not been taken by 156 at 62 cents; monid-holders, 132 at 83 had supposed it would be disagreeable to the broken down, and the wages of its labor re-The weapon with which they planned to per | ure-gatherers, 326 at 97 cents; sticker-up upon their own heads. Their diplomatic bungling has become habitual and notorious In these few classes are about 1,800 workers, nearly all of whom would obviously be classed as boys in Great Britain, but all of whom are least 96.4 per cent higher than British, the per cent higher, or even more

THAT DEMOCRATIC RATIFICATION. The Democracy of this town is to be pitied. As it thinks of the ratification meeting which ia the newspapers and on the fences and dead have been asked to take the stump in this campaign. The fact that the Democratic leaders summoned him to the duty speaks better for their devotion to their party in the hour of its "The World," in its article on the meeting, "on here !

But what about the speakers who were put forward in place of the sick man? Were they equal to the occasion? Well, on the testimony argues that it was a mistake for the managers of the meeting to place Governor David B. ers. On this point "The Times" expresses itself thus bluntly:

It was unfortunate that Judge Thurman's illness deprived the audience of the expected pleasure of listening to him, and it was still more unfortunate that the Committee of Arrangements should have infinded in the list of speakers the names of Governor Hill and Senator Blackburn, one of whom apologized for the Administration as having, on the whole, dor very well-a sort of tribute that comes with extreme by bad grace from so eminent a maladministrator as David B. Hill-while the other had the volcarity by attack the President upon one of the tatters of his public policy that has strongly commended him to the country. The gentlemen at the National Demoarte headquarters should promptly appoint a com-careely be called a glittering success. Then gain, the treatment accorded to the cloquent ir. Flower added to the ill-fortune of the cension. Mr. Flower was named as chairman of the meeting, and had prepared a large number of remarks which he was anxious to submit to the nudience. But his fellow-Democrats had the discourtesy to turn a deaf ear to his oratory. They simply yelled him down, brutally breaking the thread of his discourse in a number of places with vociferous calls for another man. It would not be strange if in view although he had been fairly elected chairman. would have none of him.

to call and see him on a matter of importances | molested Chiengo Tribame," who is admit, if not over-

National Committee for Himeis. The blunders own nation, is of no value to people of that Sensor Vest showed that Mr. Esber came into | no other way, the Postmaster's room, when he was conversing | If the workers of this country refuse to | the party of reform.

difference in wages paid must be considerably | Times" and "The Globe," the leading Demothe official tables make American wages at press in the severest condemnation of Mr. Judd. Under an Administration which had any sincerity in the matter of Civil Service reform he would have been instantly removed. But the heads of Federal offices know by this time that they have nothing to fear in giving the lie to Mr. Cleveland's reform promises, provided the work is done for his benefit. In this way he is enabled to stay on the record as a reformer, and, at the same time, to get the fruits of the spoils system, and he evidently Under an Administration which had any sinactual wages paid here are undoubtedly 100 | cerity in the matter of Civil Service reform "Does a ratification ratify?" The meeting fruits of the spoils system, and he evidently was intended to be what the boys style "a hopes to make a handsome profit out of both

It is not surprising, therefore, to read in the "no one, who is acquainted with the antimaster-General Dickinson, will give any credence to the report that he will punish Mr.

AS OTHERS SEE US.

It was to be expected that the British press would instantly seize upon the inconsistency extremity than for their respect for age. "It of Mr. Cieveland's present position with rewas perhaps a mistake," pensively remarks gard to the fisheries controversy as the text for a vigorous ethical argument at the expense total of 3.837,112 employed in that depart- the part of the managers to bring Mr. Thurman of the United States. They have done this ably, unanimously, and, in some instances, bitterly. They do not forget, to be sure, that Mr. Cleveland is, in an especial sense, their pet American statesman. They are not insensible to their obligations to him as the champion of say not. "The New-York Times" (Dem.) English commercial interests. They frankly avow their doubt of the sincerity of his recent ferocious declarations, which, with characteristic politeness, they ascribe to political and not patriotic moti es. But they are quick to appreciate the inconsistent character of his pelicy and the opportunity it affords them of pressing a just complaint against retaliation as the successor of diplomacy. It was not England, they say, nor Canada, which rejected the treaty. The American President proposed it. He appointed Commissioners to frame it. He inspired and guided their course. He expressed, and still expresses, complete approval | lender of the Canadian opposition, that " the Govhis own treaty confirmed and perfected, he Yankees to grant reciprocity." We had hoped wheels about, and, as "The London Times" that Mr. Laurier might be misinformed, and that expresses it, "shouts as loudly for retaliation Sir Charles would take an apportunity of disas he formerly did for compromise."

American criticisms of Mr. Cleveland are had faith are necessarily reflections upon the Nation. When he, as the Chief Executive of tion of a branch of the Government having coordinate jurisdiction, but such a plea becomes atterly augatory when made as an excuse for the abandonment of that policy for one which indignity Mr. Flower should issue a bad faith as well against the Nation as against

From beginning to end, and at every stage rageous conduct on the part of an English dependency, not of treaty misinterpretation There was no dispute over the meaning of expressed it with admirable clearness. Had removing Postmaster Judd, of Chiengo. His they thereupon assumed a firm and resolute retention in office, after the recent extraor- position, which the Republican Senate so stoutdinary assessment of his subordinates, in pract by urged upon them; had they then with hetical violation of the Civil Service law, would coming dignity formulated the National dea entirely in accordance with the record of search together with an expression of the alagainst him. The case is a scand-lous one, trang, we should have preserved our reputation Mr. Judd is still a member of the law firm of | for a consistent and harmonious foreign policy. upon the firm sign, and he has jewliely ad- self-respecting course left us, since every other nitted since this exposure that he still gives had been tried before in the long effort to his partners the benefit of his advice on ques- preserve kindly relations with Canada, and tions of practice. In his letter he called it instead of listening to English inunts and "a limited arrangement." Some time ago his sincers, we should be receiving the apologies of subordinates in the Chicago post office received her colony and the awards due these of our postal cards from Mr. E-her, requesting them citizens whose property has been arregardly at the offices of the firm. A reporter of "The WILL THE WORKERS BUY EXPERIENCES wisdom to learn from the experience of anyand when he can. So there are two kinds of nations. One has to try the miseries of free bade before deciding that it is not a good thing. All the experience of all other nations Mr. Phelps is the member of the Democratic of the world, and all past experience of their

mentioned in connection with the inquiries | Cleveland's free-trade policy, and see how it | would hardly have made the selection if he nation that once suffers its industries to be Postmaster, and it is only a tair inference from I deced, and its working people degraded by I to was practically foreshadowed at this interview. | gots valuable information but pays a high price, officer, and that the office in which the assess-

and, therefore, nothing had been done in vio- | can never be brought back to the old standard

their experience is not to be disregarded by "The death of Mrs. Anson Burlingame recalls," says compared to those will 's the House Tariff bill gave some choice specimens of Oriental bronzes and would involve; they are not attempt free wool, lief from the economic theories of slave-drivers. If the new generation of Americans insists | upon buying its own experience it can have its | House to-day and paid his respects to the President on way. There are a great many thousand werkers who have so long enjoyed prosperity that they cannot believe a mere change of law would make them paupers. But if half the manufacturing establishments of the country. having been called into existence by the pro-tective policy, should be closed by its overthrow; if half the manufacturing workers, cause they can't go in swimming throw; if half the manufacturing workers, 2,000,000 in number, should be turned out of employment, and forced to trample each other to death in the struggle for bread, are the enthus lastic boys quite sure that they would content why?

Walter-Ease that they for dat chicken to cost, san, -(The Epoch.)

"The New-York Herald" speaks of Mr. Cleveland's "fighting qualities and his unswerving next thing he wants to do is to put the same abbreloyalty to conviction." Yes. Mr. Cleveland viation after the names of all the inhabitants. showed his "lighting qualities" during the war by engaging a substitute, and since he has been President he has again showed them by surrendering at discretion to the officeholders, after addressing them the much-talked about "order." His "unswerving loyalty to conviction" is of the same sert. Four years ago he came out strong against sort. Four years ago he came out strong against the eligibility of a President for re-election. Now deal of pride that they belong to the medical profeshe is engaged in running with all his might and sion, but the old fellows who have got there are more main for a second term.

In his speech in this city on Thursday evening Governor Hill appealed to "the sober second thought of the people." It is rather droll to hea the champion of unlimited rum indicating a regard for the "sober" second thought.

Sir Charles Tupper made a speech at a public dinner in Sheffield Thursday evening, but the dispatch purporting to give an account of what he said contains no denial of the remark recently attributed to Sir Charles by Mr. Laurier, the of their work. And yet, having failed to get erament would find a way of compelling the claiming an attenance which, in view of the lare measure of responsibility resting upon him for directed against the individual and the party | the present condition of affairs, can only be rethe represents, but foreign complaints of his jectionable. The United States is distinguished among nations for her liberality, frankness and Nation. When he as the Chief Executive of courtesy. She works no quarred with any Power, our Government, presents to a country with but, on the contrary, is ever ready to listen to which we have an issue in dispute a policy of friendly suggestions. The United States have concession in settlement of the controversy and his proposals are agreed to, he may, of course, is not yet exhausted. But she does not care to plend in excuse for a failure to earry out his bear from one of the responsible Ministers of a policy that it did not meet with the approba- country which has pursued a studiously enems;

Ninety-five days have now been passed in the incubation of Mr. Cleveland's letter of acceptance is its exact reverse, and invites the charge of and still it is not ready. This is not too long a time, however, to squeeze the rich juices from the

Alas for the dreams of ambition. Licutenant-Governor Jenes not long ago thought that the Executive Clair it sif was fairly within his reach. But now a scheme is being puched, looking to cheating him out of the barren honor of a renomination for his present place. The General, of this Canadian controversy, there has been a | however, is a good lighter, and can be counted | lamentable want of principle in the Govern- upon to make a gallant struggle in the conven-

The Mills Tariff bill and the Tariff of 1883, compared, in pamphlet form, handsomely printed, can now be obtained in the counting-room of THE TRIBUNE. The first edition of THE TRIBcloudy words. It concerned only the behavior UNE's "Tariff of 1883," 10,000 comes, has been AN ASSESSMENT SCANDAL.

Washington dispatches to Democratic papers depy on the authority both of Colonel Lamont, the President's private segregary and the president segregary and the presi the President's private secretary, and the Post- stood the question, for his Secretary of State tail. Comparison with the rates new in force is made, from by item. The proposed reductions of internal revenue are also given, as well as the man. He wasn't a bed man; he was only Treesary estimate of the extent to which the reecipts of the Government will be diminished. Peo-ple who are inclined to believe Mr. Mills's claim, that the "average reduction" of the tariff is the howlers of the saide. He define any back-4 6-10 per cent, can examine this pamphlet and fone, if wasn't led but to was a poor creature-judge for themselves. They will gain a great in fact, there was nothing to him. Inchiren, if deal of light on the quaint and original character | General Andrew Jackson had been in Pontius Pilate's of Mr. Mille's figures. The complete, in spite of place that trial would have had a different ending." of Mr. Mills's figures. The campilet, in spite of margement by addition of new material, will be sold at the old price, 12 cents a copy; 100 copies for $8; 1.000 copies for $70.

Its Leaving Time, Father Old Lady (to elevator by reading Cine non-to-like often does the elevator Boy it pres up at the end of every charge man, — Time. for $8; 1,000 copies for $70.

David Bennett Hill " firmly believes that the people are recombly satisfied with Democratically and do not desire a change," Were you not thinking of that nomination at Buffalo, Governor,

The Roy, Dr. Talmage, just back from an extensive trip West and South, says to a reporter for "The Brooklyn Engle": "In Indiana, notwithstanding all that has been said in the newsheir candidate, I have to say that I never saw "political highwaymen" whose throats have been There are two kinds of boys: One has to so much enthusiassa for any candidate as I my clutched and whose lives have been taken by the care by experience how it feels to get drunk. among the Republicans for General Marrison." It das result, thrull people, do not know that they have is evident that Dr. Talmage doesn't regard Indiana been appressed, and are the happiest and most prosas a doubtful State. His testimenty is the more perces working classes on the face of the earth? valuable because he himself supports the Prohibi Hundreds of thousands of them have come from tion party, and as between Republicans and Dem- the other side of the Atlantic, and instead of ocrats he may be regarded as, in a sease, a non- warning their friends in the old country against

So the liquor-dealers remarked in the platform which they adopted at their recent convention But they did not assert that they were distrustful of the Democratic party. Oh, no. The saloens i trust the party of retrogression. They distrust

PERSONAL.

There is a runser that the new Duchess of Mariborough will visit this city the last of next month. Princess Lactitia Bosaparte really looks wonder wedding dress is of white motre, made in the style of illization reached under protective tariffs of the

there has been no change for the worse for the last few days. He is very excitable, and the constant running of the door bell by 'in altrong friends' so districted from that it was stepped.

Miss Cobdon's cottage, The Harst, near Midhurst, studied his legal position, by pointing out, with mony which they once enjoyed. Degrading some exultation, that he was not a Government conditions will necessarily bring in degraded some exultation, that he was not a Government | conditions will necessarily bring in degraded | the of Rochdale. Mr. Potter will soon be physically | land alone, then, is "civilized" and out of the iabor, and in a very few years even the methods an old man, but his spirit is still young, and he is slough of the Dark Ages. Everywhere clse civilsuch a lamentable series of blunders that it is classed as men in American official tables, and ments had been paid was not a Federal office, and the machinery of labor will so after that it ever gental and kind. He has lived an active, busy ization is played out pottery and enriched its loan collection by rare and companied by his secretary called at the White

THE TALE OF THE DAY.

Twenty-five lively crocodiles recently escaped into the river 12be from an African sailing vessel. The crocodiles are thought to be enjoying their new

When a young doctor sets up in a town the first

The young doctors always tell you with a great fond of referring to their medical practice. THAT JINGO MUSSAGE.

I'll twist the British Lat's tail,
I'll make the Canteles I we me!
We've get to fish, and they eat balt—
By jingo, boys, you hear me! Fit pile the earth with English dead,
If you will all stand near me.
And capture every Irish vote—
By jingo, boys, you have me!

Fill crush the Senate at a blow,
And those who always just me;
I'll make it break its part; a neck,
By jingo, boys, you as at first

I had not thought to call a turn.
That would as this enless me.
But Providence protects its usu.
By lingo, boys, you bear use!

Now let us all rejoice and sing.
And Democrats come rear not!
If I come back you take the earth—
By Jingo, boys, you hear no.
—(Washington Critic.

efore is mostler extract from that amusing Southern ty on "The Quick or the Lend": "Blowly the f the, heavy with sourse-or something-re-or saw-propoed upon her dimpled knows that differ telegram. With Lartning flashy signals reportedly manifered nails, she tore it open and, evenly, subject its scribbled contents. a slim glide of her lissom limbs. Acamemna imed from her bod, landing single-springly in mid-. Shaking her grand head, the colden halrpins her colled flerce of fire swirled round her in a ming shower, gemming the dusty floor as clars a tibane storm sky! One more twist of the or that's and her wrapper left the shiring satinskin, as she shod Cadivaly in the spun filament her red gold capillam?"

"Miss Howlames, shall we go to the concert this control the programme consists of selections from sizes." "From whom, Mr. Cabosia," "From agent," "I have never heard of him," "Great sharps!" Never heard of vagner, the great Great for the sharps! Never heard of vagner, the great Great for the sharps! Never heard of vagner, the great Great for the sharps! bicaro Tribuna

Poor Ohi I men! Even his bilthrest opponents. must feel indignact at the brutal way in which he has been dranged about the country in order to each votes for an unpopular cand date.

of him to carry that

"Brethren," said a Tennessee preacher recently, don't put Postius Printer

DEMOCRACY MEANS FREE TRADE.

You would continue the interest of labor? When it and that you now consists strating every nerve to true a blow a that labor pairs of your high-tariff has not a continue that and did take the Industrial came working, you seek to title happending political revol Wisconsin, itsulf delate. Api the high-fariff rates in the can the law you dared ema-tomanagy attempt to defend, to monitain, is the daylained you profame in every hand, that have for a quaned at its throat of real labor that demanded their meney that demanded their meney that demanded their meney that if for furthers of these is to win if for furthers of these is to win to your rate in a committee. We full form that the management of the latest part of the second to the second the second that the second the second that the second the second that the second th Strange, is it not, that the victims of these their terrible plight, they are bringing millions after them to share their prosperity.

our friends, the charge, say, "Yes, let us build a Chinese wall around this round and vigorous proper whose caper enterprise hundry chales under the bounds of hature, and if we cannot make he whelly impervious, let us make it as never we as we can tell us, if we cannot go clear back to the barbarism of China a thousand year, ago, go back at least to the heald ago, when traffic in almost every important commodity was a non-spelly famed out by the coverient, and industry and commerce were the terminal presentations of rulers extrained under the training athions of rulers extrained solicitous for the interests of the labor which thus furnished the publication of the labor which thus furnished the publications of the labor which thus furnished the publication of the labor which the labor

This exceeds in fauntical fury John Bright's well-worn phrase "barbarism of tariffs." M5 Cleveland's favorite statesman finds in Chinese walls and mediaeval feudalism the scale of eiv-First Empire, and ornamented with silver empired at veil is embedded with bees and eagles, the dems of the house of houspurie.

The tempire and ornamented with silver empired at veil is embedded with bees and eagles, the dems of the house of houspurie. William Warren is still a critically sick man, but recourse to pretective tacids; all the lading in material progress under the same system; get